

June 30, 2011 - Mayor Interviewing Fire Chief Candidates

Mayor Cedric Glover will spend three days interviewing more than 20 candidates vying to become Shreveport's next Fire Chief.

The interviews began today and are scheduled to end late Saturday with a possible announcement coming this weekend. Each candidate is scheduled to spend 30 minutes with Mayor Glover.

Technology also is playing a greater role in the process. On Friday at noon, the Mayor will conduct one interview via Skype to accommodate a candidate currently deployed in Afghanistan.

All 22 applicants scheduled for interviews passed the Civil Service exam and already work for the Shreveport Fire Department. The next chief will replace Brian Crawford, who is retiring from the department to become the City's Assistant Chief Administrative Officer.
