

October 14, 2011 - Mayor Leads Local Contingent on Inter-City Visit

Mayor Cedric Glover is leading a group that includes about 50 elected officials, business and community leaders on a three-day trip departing for Oklahoma City Sunday, October 16.

The ``Inter-City Visit'' is a strategy being used by cities seeking to explore opportunities to enhance the quality of life for its citizens. These trips allow for direct interaction with key leaders in other communities facing similar issues.

The Oklahoma City leaders will share their thoughts on topics ranging from downtown revitalization to economic development. The goal will be to identify implementable solutions to help make Shreveport thrive and prosper.

The group will gather Sunday morning at 7:30 at the Police and Fire Academy, 6440 Greenwood Rd., to board a chartered bus. They'll head back to Shreveport late Tuesday morning.
