

May 21, 2012 - City to Honor High School State Champions

Mayor Cedric Glover and the City of Shreveport will host ``Championship Tuesday`` (May 22) to recognize high school boys and girls who won state titles in various athletic competitions during the school year.

The festivities begin at 2:30 p.m. with an informal reception in the foyer of Government Plaza. The student/athletes then will be introduced to the entire City Council at 3 p.m.

``This is just one way to show our appreciation for these talented student/athletes who have gone out and represented our City so well,`` Mayor Glover said. ``In the higher profile sports, it's easier to gain recognition for your hard work and excellent performance. But the athletes who participate in some of the Olympic-style sports like gymnastics and archery can go unnoticed, so we want those young people to know how much we appreciate their efforts.``

Athletes from Booker T. Washington, Caddo Magnet, C. E. Byrd, Calvary Baptist Academy, Captain Shreve, Evangel, Loyola Prep and Northwood have been invited to come and celebrate state championships in sports ranging from girls basketball to archery.
