SEEDINGS (as of May 13): Here is what we know right now ... In the West, Grambling has secured the #3 seed. Southern and Texas Southern are battling for the top two seeds, and either Prairie View A&M and Arkansas-Pine Bluff will get the final seed. PV must win at least one game vs. Texas Southern this weekend to remain alive in the race. If PV sweeps TXSO, then UAPB is eliminated. Otherwise, there are a number of different combinations that will be more clear after this weekend's series ... In the East, Alabama A&M has been eliminated. Alabama State has secured the #4 seed. Jackson State, Alcorn State, and Mississippi Valley State all remain alive for any of the top three seeds.
