The Barnwell Center will offer a drawing class with instruction by Jane Heggen. The class will be on “Creative Compositions through Drawing”. The class will begin Thursday September 9, 2010 and run for six weeks. The six week session will encompass all levels of experience from beginning through advanced. The group will be exploring new ways of looking at composition using new visual aids. This will include the positive and negative aspects of the subject chosen and thinking both inside and outside the box for stronger compositions. At the end of each class a critique will be offered.

At the end of the six week session you will have drawings that you may choose from to transfer and execute in any medium and on a variety of supports. Think collage, oils, acrylic, charcoal, colored pencil, pastel (soft or oil), watercolor, graphite, gouache, pen and ink. The combinations are endless. From canvas to claybord, pastel papers from Canson to sanded, Yupo to watercolor paper, plus many more available supports. The choice is yours and the creative spirit awaits in you.

The cost of the class is $70 and a supply list will be provided. Make checks out to Friends of the Barnwell. Space is Limited! Call 318-673-7703 to reserve your spot today.
