BY: COUNCILMEN NICKELSON AND BOUCHER

WHEREAS, Michael Jenkins, a concerned citizen, helped assist the Shreveport Police and Fire Departments in a house fire in the Highland area neighborhood on Wednesday, November 27, 2019; and
WHEREAS, Michael Jenkins, noticed smoke and flames from the neighbor’s house and called 911. When police Corporal Ernestine “Tina” Morris arrived on the scene, Mr. Jenkins told her, “an elderly female is trapped in the house”; and
WHEREAS, Michael Jenkins boosted Cpl. Morris into the second floor window of residence where she found the elderly female and he helped her to safely exit the burning building; and
WHEREAS, the fire was so intense, it took the efforts of 13 fire units (approximately 35 firefighters) one hour and 35 minutes to control and extinguish the blaze; and
WHEREAS, because of Michael Jenkins call to 911 and his assistance in the rescue, no citizen was injured during this major fire incident.
NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the City Council of the City of Shreveport in due, legal and regular session convened, that the Shreveport City Council recognizes Michael Jenkins for his actions which helped rescue a citizen from a burning house.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution shall be executed in duplicate originals with one original presented to Michael Jenkins, and the other resolution filed in perpetuity in the office of the Clerk of Council for the City of Shreveport.

Read by title and as read, motion by Councilman Boucher, seconded by Councilman Green, to adopt. Motion approved by the following vote: Ayes: Councilmen Bradford, Fuller, Nickelson, Boucher, Flurry and Green. 6. Nays: 0. Out of the Chamber: 0. Absent: Councilman Bowman. 1. Abstentions: 0.

On behalf of the Shreveport Fire Department, Chief Wolverton presented Michael Jenkins with a Citizen Saves Life Award and Fire Department Challenge Coin which reflects the department putting community first, serving with honor, integrity and respect to Michael Jenkins.

Michael Jenkins: I just wanted to say thank you to the Council and the Fire Department and you too Mr. Perkins. Thank you all for giving me this opportunity to come up. As I told everyone before, I never did it for credit and heroism. I did it because, as us, as citizens, the best way for us to grow is water each other and help each other. You never know when you may need help and I looked at it, saying, yeah I may be 20 now and I may be physically fit to help someone today, but you never know what your life holds for the rest of the day. May be the next day, I might need someone to help me to get out of a fire. I had a lot of people look at me and tell me, you know, they said that was a heroic act. I tell a lot of people to define heroism? You know, we say that heroism is really something that we thrive at when we are scared and when we hop in and take charge because we are trying to save those who aren’t safe, but are we really safe? We look around and we always wonder because we are inside of the confined walls of our homes, but we’re really not. You never know what’s out there; we look up every single day and don’t know what’s out across the million miles of what we consider space, that’s not safe. Asteroids can hit us any day and time, a stray bullet can hit a house any day and at any time, so what I looked at in what I did wasn’t an act of heroism or bravery. It was an act of the right thing to do because that was the best thing to do as citizens. We are brothers and sisters in Christ and brothers and sisters as citizens of the City of Shreveport, Louisiana and America. We are all supposed to be a family and we are all supposed to be one and under one nation we are supposed to stand because if it is one nation we are all going to fall together so, we might as well stand together. I look at you all (Fire Department) and you are the real hero. Don’t pat me on the back, you all should pat yourselves on the back because you risk your life each and every single day that was a one time thing for me but you wake up and you have a family, that you risk your life for because there is not a guarantee that you are going to go back home tonight. But when you put on that uniform, you know the risk and you are courageous. You are the real brave one and I thank you.
Councilman Bradford expresses his appreciation to the council, the Mayor for his proclamation and remarks and the Shreveport Police Department for coming by the services of the late civil rights icon, Dr. C. O. Simpkins.
