FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bossier City woman charged with burglarizing a Shreveport home

Suspect Krystal Davis

Shreveport Police Property Crimes Investigators arrested a woman they believe responsible for a home burglary that took place in south Shreveport back in June.

On June 20, 2017 just before 3:00 pm, Shreveport Police Patrol Officers responded to reports of a home burglary in the 1100 block of Waters Edge Circle. Officers learned that the suspect forcibly entered the back door of the residence and removed an empty safe from within the home.

Investigators with the Property Crimes Division began an investigation into the matter. Through information gathered from the victim they developed, Krystal Davis, 30, of the 400 block of John Wesley Boulevard, in Bossier City as the alleged suspect. On July 17, 2017, Investigators procured a warrant for Davis charging her with one count of Simple Burglary of an Inhabited Dwelling and set her bond at $50,000.00.

On August 11, 2017, Bossier City Police took Davis into custody on her outstanding warrant. After her arrest, investigators were able to locate the safe and return it to the victim. Davis was booked into Bossier City Police Department then later transferred to Caddo Correctional Center.
