FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspect sought in shooting Shreveport's Morningside neighborhood

Shreveport Police are searching for the suspects responsible for a Sunday afternoon shooting which sent one man to the hospital in west Shreveport.

Just before 3:00 p.m. on September 17, 2017, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to a home in the 2600 block of Bibb Street relative to a man who was suffering a gunshot wound there. As officers arrived at the scene of the crime, they made contact with the victim, 20 year old Eldrick Thomas. Thomas was suffering a single gunshot wound to the right leg. Thomas was taken to University Health for treatment of non-life-threatening injuries.

Shreveport Police Violent Crimes investigators arrived at the scene of the crime and are currently gathering information into the matter. Based on information provided by the victim, he was shot by suspects who were reportedly driving a black sport utility vehicle. Police are asking anyone with information about the crime to contact Crimestoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at: www.lockemup.org.
