FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport man charged in attempted armed robbery of department store

Suspect Nagee Agee

A Shreveport man lands in jail following a brazen armed robbery attempt at a west Shreveport department store Wednesday afternoon.

Just after 2:00 p.m. on September 20, 2017, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the Burlington Coat Factory located in the 8900 block of Jewella Avenue relative to an attempted armed robbery of the business. As officers arrived there, contact was made with employees who advised a man armed with a sharp edged object entered the store and demanded money from one of the store clerks. The man, after unsuccessfully ordering the clerk to open the cash register, made his own failed attempts to gain entry into the cash drawer.

After failing to access any loot, the man ran from the store on foot, only to be captured in a nearby, adjoining parking lot, with the help of patrol officers and a trained police K-9 and his handler. The man was identified as 26 year old Najee Agee of the 700 block of Woodmont Place. Agee, who was later booked into the Shreveport City Jail, faces a charge of attempted armed robbery.
