Couple accused in slaying of elderly woman arrested in Texas

The couple accused in the stabbing death of a Shreveport woman has been arrested in Texas following an hour's long manhunt.

On September 27, 2017, Shreveport Police Violent Crimes Investigators procured warrants for Roy Narcisse and Kiana Williams, accusing them of murdering 82-year-old Kathleen Cates. The US Marshal Task force entered the investigation and were able to develop information that led them to Narcisse and Williams. They were located in San Angelo, Texas on September 28 around 2:00 am, and were still in possession of the victim's vehicle when they were apprehended.

Narcisse and Williams are being held at Tom Green County Jail awaiting extradition back to Caddo Parish.
