FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport Police Vice operation nets multiple massage parlor arrests

Investigators with the Shreveport Police Department's Vice Unit have made multiple prostitution arrests and seized nearly half a million dollars from local massage parlors over the past two weeks.

Beginning on October 9, 2017 Shreveport Police Vice Agents executed search warrants at 3110 Bert Kouns Industrial Loop at the Magic Hands Asian Massage Parlor and 437 Kings Highway at the Shangri-La Massage and Spa. The investigation began after agents received tips that acts of prostitution were being performed at the two businesses.

Agents launched their investigation and over a period of several months developed information that led them to procure search warrants for the two businesses. The search warrants fruited roughly $400,000 dollars in cash and multiple prostitution related arrests.

The following subjects are accused in crimes related to prostitution:

Yilin-Li, 18, one count of Massage; Prohibited Sexual Conduct, Liuying Liu, 44, one count of Prostitution by Massage, Haiping Sun, 44, one count of promoting prostitution, Jinfeng Qin, 51, one count Massage; Sexual Conduct Prohibited, Yujiao cui, 42, one count of Prostitution, Yuyan Li, 44, one count of Prostitution and Ping Wang, 50, Massage; Sexual Conduct Prohibited. All subjects were booked into Caddo Correctional Center on their charges
