Maintenance man arrested following theft from local school

Suspected thief

Shreveport Police investigators have a man in custody that they believe committed multiple thefts from a local school over a period of four years.

On November 13, 2017, Shreveport Police made contacted with employees at the Southfield School at 1100 Southfield Road in reference to money missing from the school's book fair registers. The employees reported that $250.00 in cash was missing and that they had captured the alleged thief on video. Employees identified the suspect as Clifton Douglas Long, 42, of Ringgold, Louisiana.

Detectives with the Property Crimes Unit were assigned to the case. Through their investigation, detectives learned that Long was also responsible for alleged thefts of other school property such as Ipads and speakers. On November 16, 2017, detectives took Long into custody on school campus. Upon his arrest Long was found to be in possession of a Schedule III controlled substance without a prescription. Long was charged with two counts of Theft and one count each of Unauthorized Use of a Moveable, Possession of Schedule III, and Possession of a Controlled Dangerous Substance in a Drug Free Zone. He was subsequently booked into the Shreveport City Jail on his charges.
