Police make arrest in theft from local hotel

Suspect Sygonia Reed

Shreveport Police have a woman in custody accused of stealing property from a hotel room in downtown Shreveport.

On November 18, 2017, Shreveport Police responded to the El Dorado Casino at 451 Clyde Fant Memorial Parkway on reports of a theft. Officers made contact with the victim who reported that her laptop computer was stolen from her hotel room while she was away. The computer was valued at more than $2,000.00.

Investigators with the Property Crimes Unit began an investigation into the matter and through their investigative efforts were able to locate and recover the computer at an apartment in the 7200 block of Bernstein Avenue. Sygonia Reed, 37, of the 7200 block of Bernstein, was in possession of the stolen laptop and was taken into custody without incident. Investigators learned that Reed was employed at the hotel as a housekeeper and had access to the room from which the laptop was taken. Reed was taken to the detective's office for interviews and subsequently booked into the Shreveport City Jail on one count of Felony Theft
