Shreveport man arrested for warrants following vehicle pursuit

Suspect Joshua Lyons

Officers with Shreveport Police Department's Community Response Unit have a man in custody for multiple warrants following a brief pursuit last Thursday.

On December 7, 2017 just after 9:30 pm, CRU members attempted to stop a vehicle at Hearne Avenue and Randolph Street after it was observed committing traffic violations. Officers attempted to stop the vehicle but the driver refused to stop, leading officers on a brief pursuit. The suspect, Joshua Lyons, 31, of the 1400 block of Alma Street, stopped the car on Morningside Drive and fled on foot. He was captured a short time later and taken into custody. Investigators had been actively searching for Lyons for months. He was featured on Shreveport Police Department's "Wanted Wednesday" back in early November.

Lyons was booked into the Shreveport City Jail on one count each of Flight from an Officer, Felony Theft of Goods, a writ of attachment, Domestic Abuse Battery and Simple Battery. He is currently being held without bond.
