FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Two injured in afternoon shooting in west Shreveport

Shreveport Police are investigating a shooting that left a man and woman injured in Shreveport's Mooretown neighborhood earlier this afternoon.

On January 7, 2018 just after 2 pm, Shreveport Police Patrol Officers responded to reports of a shooting at C&C Grocery in the 5100 block of Broadway Avenue. Officers arrived on scene and located 32-year-old Otis Stanley suffering from what was described as a single non-life threatening gunshot wound to the side. He was transported to University Health Hospital by the Shreveport Fire Department. Officers were told that a 39-year old woman, Yvette Taylor, was also shot and was being transported to Willis Knighton North by private automobile. Officers made contact with Taylor and learned that she had sustained a single gunshot injury to her arm. Both victims are expected to survive.

Investigators with the Violent Crimes Unit and Crime Scene Investigations Unit responded to the scene and began interviewing witnesses and collecting evidence from the scene. The investigation is ongoing.

Shreveport Police are asking for people with information about this shooting to contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373 or visit their website at Lockemup.org.
