Man arrested following domestic fueled shooting incident

Suspect Wynston Scott

The Shreveport Police Department with assistance from Greenwood Police have a man jailed that they believe responsible for shooting two others following a domestic dispute in south Shreveport earlier this week.

Just after 7:00 pm on January 30, 2018, Shreveport Police responded to reports of a shooting in the 2000 block of Bert Kouns Industrial Loop at the Castlewood Apartment Complex. Upon arrival, officers made contact with two men who had sustained multiple gunshot injuries. 24-year-old Anthony Wilson had been grazed at least three times and was treated on scene by Medics with the Shreveport Fire Department. 22-year old Elijah Bridges sustained gunshot wounds to his arm and leg and was transported to University Health Hospital for treatment.

Detectives with the Domestic Violence Unit and Crime Scene Investigations Unit responded to the scene. While the Crime Scene Unit collected physical evidence, detectives began interviewing witnesses and the victims. Through their investigation detectives learned that 25-year-old Lauren Hayes had been involved in a dispute with her estranged husband, Wynston Scott, 25, of the 6500 block of Burke Street. Hayes agreed to meet Scott at a local restaurant to exchange their child. As the victims exited the apartment to go to the restaurant, Scott appeared on the parking lot and allegedly began firing multiple shots at them striking Wilson and Woods.

On February 1, 2018, detectives procured a warrant for Scott charging him with Attempted First Degree Murder and 2 counts of Aggravated Criminal Damage to Property. Bond was set at $500,000.00. Greenwood Police Department arrested Scott later that day and booked him into the Caddo Correctional Center.
