Patrol officers nab man with stolen weapon, drugs, and cash

Suspect Kelvin Roberson

Shreveport Police patrol officers assigned to Shreveport's Cedar Grove Neighborhood have a man in custody today after a neighborhood patrol leads to the seizure of drugs and a stolen weapon.

On February 13, 2018 just after 10:00 am, Shreveport Police patrol officers were patrolling along the 500 block of West 65th Street when they observed a man smoking Marijuana in front of a residence. Officers attempted to contact the suspect, Kelvin Roberson, 34, of the 500 block of West 65th Street, and he fled into the residence. Officers set a perimeter and Richardson exited the home and surrendered without incident. Officers searched the residence and seized a stolen .40 caliber handgun, 103 grams of Marijuana, 50 MDMA tablets, 2 digital scales, and $1,200 in cash.

Roberson was booked into the Shreveport city jail on one count each of Illegally Possessing a Stolen Firearm, Possession with the Intent to Distribute Marijuana, Possession with Intent to Distribute MDMA, and Trigger Lock.
