Shreveport Police need help locating accused car burglar

Suspect Christopher Taylor

On January 30, 2018 Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 1400 block of Bert Kouns at Planet Fitness on reports of several vehicle burglaries. Officers arrived, processed the vehicles for evidence, and secured the surveillance video from the business.

Detectives with the Property Crimes Investigations Unit were assigned to the case and were able to identify the subject in the video as Christopher Taylor, 26, of the 10000 block of Cortez Drive. The video shows Taylor enter the gym and begin to scan the area. Taylor is then videoed going to the communal key rack and removing keys. He used the keys to unlock the vehicles, then went to the parking lot and burglarized the vehicles. Taylor then returned to the gym and repeated the act several times. Only two victims were able to be located but many were burglarized.

Detectives procured warrants for Taylor's arrest charging him with two counts of Simple Burglary. His bond totals $40,000.00.

Crime Stoppers is offering a reward for information leading to Taylor's arrest. Please contact them at 318-673-7373 visit their website at Lockemup.org, or download their app, P3 Tips from the app store.
