FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCATED: Critical Missing 7-year old

Sharie Washington

Shreveport Police need your help to find a 7 year old girl missing from her residence since Friday evening.

Just after 1:30 p.m. on February 17, 2018, Shreveport Police were called to a home located in the 2900 block of Sunnybrook Street relative to a missing juvenile. On officers arrival and after speaking with the parent of the child, it is suspected the child left the home Friday evening, with plans to stay at a friend's house.

On Saturday afternoon, it was learned the child was not at the location thought to have been where the child stayed overnight. At current, authorities are searching the area for the child, identified as Sharie Washington. Washington, who stands four feet ,six inches tall and weighs 85 pounds, was last known to be wearing a stripped gray shirt, blue jeans, black boots. Persons with any information on the whereabouts of Washington are asked to contact Shreveport Police immediately at: (318) 673-7300.
