Armed Robbery suspect captured by Shreveport Police patrol officers

Suspect Cartiliues Claville

A man spotlighted on Warrants Wednesday twice and accused of a string of crimes, including two counts of Armed Robbery is in custody thanks to the handy work of a couple of alert patrolmen proactively policing their assigned neighborhood.

On March 1, 2018 just before 3:00 pm, two Shreveport police patrol officers observed two men loitering outside of a vacant residence in the 1200 block of Travis Street. Upon contact with the men one suspect, later identified as Cartiliues Claville, 32 of the 7100 block of Beauford Way, fled into the vacant residence then out the back door. He was captured a short time later hiding under a home in the 400 block of Lawrence Street. He was in possession of 14 bags containing suspected Methamphetamines. Claville was found to have three warrants, two for Armed Robbery and one for Aggravated battery. One robbery warrant stemmed from a November 2017 robbery where Claville allegedly attempted to rob a man of his money, then shot his dog as the family pet tried to protect the owner from harm. Claville was also charges with resisting arrest and Possession with the Intent to Distribute a Schedule I Narcotic (Methamphetamine). Claville was booked into the Shreveport City jail on his charges. He is currently being held at Caddo Correctional Center without bond. Shreveport Police have arrested Claville on other violent crimes related offenses, narcotics charges, theft related charges, and resisting arrest.
