FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vehicle burglars sought by police

On January 28, 2018, just after 7:30 pm Shreveport Police responded to the 1600 block of Dilg League on reports of a vehicle burglary that just occurred. Officers were unable to locate the suspects but were provided cell phone video of the incident.

Investigators assigned to the case have released the video to the public in hopes of getting your help to identify these individuals. The video shows one suspect exit a vehicle and then walk out of view of the cameras. The suspect vehicle slowly backs toward the suspect on foot who disappears out of camera view. He allegedly attempted to burglarize the victim's truck but the victim confronted him and both subjects fled the scene in their vehicle. The suspect's vehicle is described as a brown four-door sedan.

Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward for information leading to the identification and arrest of the people responsible for this crime. Please contact them at 318-673-7373, Lockemup.org, or via the app at P3tips to submit information anonymously.
