FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspect jailed in attempted murder

Suspect Bryan Todd

Shreveport Police have arrested a man evidence has connected to a stabbing which sent two women to the hospital Tuesday morning.

Just after 4:00 a.m. on March 13, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 6900 block of Buncombe Road relative to a stabbing. As officers arrived at the location, they learned two victims, 34 year old Whitney Haynes and 49 year old Debra McDonald were suffering injuries following an attack at the hands of a man who entered their residence accompanied by two other male suspects.

During the initial investigation, officers learned both women were suffering stab wounds to varying portions of their bodies. As the inquiry progressed, Shreveport Police Violent Crimes detectives were able to gather information leading them to name 36 year old Bryan Todd of Shreveport, as a suspect in the crime. Authorities believe Todd was one of three men who arrived at the victim's home and participated in the incident which left the women seriously injured. A warrant for Todd's arrest was procured by detectives assigned to the case. On March 14, 2018, Shreveport Police arrested Todd in the 5100 block of Hollywood Avenue. Todd now faces charges of Principle to Attempted First Degree Murder. Following his arrest, Todd was booked into the Shreveport City Jail. Bond in the matter is set at half a million dollars. Police are still working to learn the identities of the two additional men who were involved in the stabbing; one who was described as a muscular build, black male who stood approximately 5'9 inches tall and was bald. Persons with any information about the crime are asked to contact Crimestoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit them online at: www.lockemup.org
