FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Warrant obtained for second suspect in stabbing of two women

Suspect Damien Updite

Shreveport Police Violent Crimes detectives have obtained a warrant for the arrest of a man believed to be responsible for a stabbing which sent two women to the hospital Tuesday morning.

Just after 4:00 a.m. on March 13, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 6900 block of Buncombe Road relative to a stabbing. As officers arrived at the location, they learned two victims, 34 year old Whitney Haynes and 49 year old Debra McDonald were suffering injuries following an attack at the hands of multiple men who entered their residence.

During the on-going investigation, police were able to arrest 36 year old Bryan Todd the day following the stabbing for his alleged role in the crime. On today, authorities were able to gain information leading them to link 38 year old Damien Updite to the crime. Updite is wanted on a warrant for Attempted First Degree Murder. Bond in the matter has been set at half a million dollars. Police continue to search for a third man involved in the crime and are asking persons with any information relative to the crime to contact Crimestoppers at: (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at: www.lockemup.org. Crimestoppers is offering a reward for information leading to the arrest of the suspect.
