FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police investigate shooting in north Shreveport

Shreveport Police continue their investigation into a late night shooting that left a woman shot.

On March 31, 2018 just after 11:30 pm, Shreveport Police responded to the 2100 block of Narcissus Drive on reports of a shooting. Officers arrived and located a very large crowd of people at that location. Officers searched the crowd for the victim but could not locate her. They later learned that she had been transported to University Health Hospital by private vehicle.

Investigators responded to the scene and to the hospital to contact the victim. The victim, 37-year-old Karla Colvin was at the location taking part in a trail ride celebrating the Easter holiday and was struck by gunfire. No other information was known. Colvin was struck in the shoulder and her injuries are considered to be non-life-threatening.

Police are asking for anyone with any information about this shooting to contact Shreveport police at 318-673-7300 or Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318-673-7373, Lockemup.org, or via their app at P3Tips. Crime Stoppers is an anonymous tip service that gives cash rewards for information leading to the identity and arrest of individuals responsible for crimes.
