Runaway teen sought by Police

MISSING Teen: Dametria Dudley

Shreveport Police are searching for a runaway teen who left her home last week and has not been seen or heard from since.

Dametria Dudley, 15, was reported as a runaway juvenile by her parents after she did not show up for school on March 12th. The teen is described as a black female with a medium complexion, who stands five feet two inches tall and weighs approximately 120 pounds. Dudley has black hair with burgundy braids, and was last seen wearing a white shirt and Khaki pants.

It is believed the teen is traveling with an older male subject who frequents the Queensboro neighborhood. Persons with any information on the whereabouts of Dametria Dudley are asked to contact Shreveport Police at: (318) 673-7300.
