FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police seek to identify subjects responsible for burglary of local business

On April 3, 2018, Shreveport Police responded to 525 East Kings Highway at Take 5 Oil Change on reports of a business burglary. Upon their arrival they discovered that the building had been forcibly entered. Once inside the two suspects low crawled across the shop floor and broke into the office area and removed undisclosed items. Officers recovered video from the business and the investigation was turned over to investigators with the Property Crimes Division for follow up. Detectives are releasing the video to the public in hopes of getting these two bandits identified.

Caddo Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward for information leading to the identification and arrest of the individuals responsible for this burglary. Contact their organization anonymously at 318-673-7373 or download the app, P3Tips.
