FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport Police ask for help identifying litterbug

Unidentified suspect

Shreveport Police are asking for help identifying a man captured on camera illegally dumping items onto a city street.

On April 23, 2018 Shreveport Police were conducting a follow up investigation into an ongoing illegal dumping problem in the 1800 block of Maple Street. Officers with the Community Oriented Policing Bureau released photos of the subject who was allegedly dumping wood and other items onto the roadway. The man was driving a gray Chevy truck with partial Louisiana handicapped tag 358. The truck is further described as a two door pickup with dual pipes. The man is described as a thin built black male with a goatee, baseball cap, blue jeans, and a multi colored striped polo style shirt.

Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers is offering a reward for information leading to the identification and arrest of the person responsible for this crime. Tips can be submitted anonymously at 318-673-7373 or via their app, P3Tips.
