FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Undercover operation targeting underage sales of alcohol nets dozens of arrests

A coordinated effort between the Shreveport Police Department's Vice Unit and Youth Bureau has led to the arrests of dozens of persons accused of selling tobacco and alcohol to persons under the legal age.

During the five day operation entitled "Save the Children", authorities checked over 200 locations throughout Shreveport who sale alcoholic beverages and tobacco products. During the investigation, 46 employees of various businesses were arrested and or summonsed for their alleged role in selling alcohol to underage buyers, while four other arrests are pending. Additionally, authorities arrested five employees who sold tobacco products to those below eighteen years old. Please see the attached PDF listings those persons involved in the incident and the locations of the alleged violations.
