Shreveport Police charge couple with molesting juveniles

Shreveport Police have two people in custody accused of molesting at least four children.

On May 17, 2018 Shreveport Police Sex Crimes Unit Investigators received reports of multiple juveniles under the age of 14 allegedly being sexually molested by two named suspects. Investigators conducted interviews and executed search warrants from which they seized evidence that they believe links the suspects to the crimes.

On June 4, 2018 investigators arrested 32-year-old Tony James and 37-year-old Erica McCray, both of the 3500 block of Lillian Street. James was charged with four counts of Molestation of Juveniles and McCray was charged with one count of Molestation of Juveniles. Following interviews, they were booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
