New facility to open at Southwest Transit Hub

The City of Shreveport will celebrate the opening of a new SporTran facility this week at the Southwest Transit Hub.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies are set for 2 p.m. Friday, June 15 at the Southwest Transit Hub, located at 6805 St. Vincent Ave.

“The Southwest Transit Hub is part of the expanded bus services we offer with routes that have improved arrival times and get passengers to their destinations faster,” said Mayor Ollie Tyler. “We are very excited to open this new facility for our citizens, as it will also provide additional police presence in that community.”

The new Southwest building will offer public restrooms for riders, a breakroom for bus drivers and an office for the Shreveport Police Department Community Policing Officers.

“We are glad to offer our passengers and drivers a new experience with this new facility,” said Dinero Washington, Chief Executive Officer of SporTran.
