FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Arrest made in burglary of local restaurant

Suspect Darius Thompson

Shreveport Police have charged a man for burglarizing a west Shreveport restaurant early this morning.

On June 18, 2018, just before 4:30 am, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 4600 block of Greenwood Road at 20/20 Seafood on reports of a burglary. Arriving officers learned that a male suspect broke into the drive thru window of the business and exited the business with a safe.

The crime was recorded on a nearby video system and that video led to identifying the alleged suspect as 25-year-old Darius Thompson, of the 9000 block of Kingston Road. Thompson reported for work and was taken into custody by investigators and patrol officers. Following interviews, Thompson was booked into the Shreveport City jail on one count of Simple Burglary.
