Domestic incident ends tragically

Shreveport Police are investigating a domestic related stabbing at a south Shreveport apartment complex that left one man dead this afternoon.

On July 17, 2018, just after 2:00 p.m., Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to reports of a stabbing in the 9000 block of Mansfield Road at Cambridge Court Apartments. Arriving officers found a man, later identified as 21-year-old Kenyon Williams, lying on the parking lot outside of one of the apartment buildings. He was suffering from a single stab wound to the upper body. A female was taken into custody and transported to the Shreveport Police Complex for questioning. Medics with the Shreveport Fire Department pronounced the man dead on scene. The Caddo Parish Coroner's Office responded and took custody of the decedent.

Investigators with the Violent Crimes and Crime Scene Units responded to the scene and began collecting evidence and interviewing witnesses. Investigators learned there was a physical altercation between Williams and his live in girlfriend, 20-year-old Shameka Ellis, which led to his fatal injuries. Investigators also learned that there was a known and documented history of domestic violence between the two. Ellis was interviewed by investigators and released. The investigation is ongoing.
