Authorities name officers in police shooting

The Shreveport Police Department has released the names of two patrolmen involved in a shooting incident Tuesday evening in Shreveport's Highland neighborhood.

On August 7, 2018 officers Cody Walsworth, hired by the department in August 2014 and Gregory Washington, hired by the department in July 2016, were placed on paid departmental leave by Chief of Police Alan Crump pending an investigation into a shooting incident which occurred at approximately 5:18 p.m. on August 7, 2018. Neither officer was injured during the incident, which remains under investigation.
