Man in custody following domestic shooting

Shreveport Police have jailed a man in connection with a morning shooting that left a woman injured in west Shreveport this morning.

On August 20, 2018, just after 4:15 a.m., Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 2700 block of Valley Ridge Drive on reports of a shooting. Arriving officers learned that the victim and her live in boyfriend, 25-year-old Randy Thomas, were engaged in an argument that turned violent when Thomas allegedly produced a handgun and shot at her multiple times, striking her twice in the leg. The victim was transported to University Health Hospital with what was described as non- life threatening injuries.

Investigators responded and launched their investigation. Following evidence collection and interviews, investigators procured a warrant for Thomas charging him with Attempted Second Degree Murder. There was no bond set. Thomas surrendered himself to authorities shortly after 7:00 a.m. He was transported to the Shreveport Police Complex for interviews then booked into the Shreveport City Jail.
