Suspect Eric Hayes

Shreveport Police have a man jailed in connection with a Wednesday evening domestic incident that left a woman suffering life-threatening injuries.

On September 12, 2018, just before 6:45 p.m., Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to the 2000 block of Milam Street on reports of domestic violence. Arriving officers found the victim suffering from a severe laceration to her arm. The victim disclosed that she and her husband, 49-year-old Eric Hayes, engaged in a verbal disagreement and Hayes threw a glass vase at her. The vase shattered and cut the victim's arm. She was transported to University Health Hospital with what was described as life-threatening injuries.

Investigators with the Violent Crimes Bureau responded to the scene and began gathering evidence and speaking with witnesses. Hayes fled the scene prior to officer's arrival. Crime Scene investigators processed the scene and collected evidence.

On September 13, 2018, Hayes was taken into custody by patrol officers. Following interviews with investigators, he was booked into the Shreveport City Jail on one count of Aggravated Second Degree Battery.
