FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Crime Stoppers tip leads to burglary arrest

Suspect Lonnie Thomas

Shreveport Police have a man in custody accused of burglarizing a local business late last month.

On September 25, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to reports of a burglary at the Valero Convenience Store in the 600 block of East 70th Street. Arriving officers found the front door shattered and the business burglarized.

Several days after the burglary, Shreveport Police received information from Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers that identified 62-year-old Lonnie Thomas as the alleged suspect. Investigators launched an inquiry and subsequently charged Thomas with Simple Burglary. Thomas was booked into the Shreveport City Jail following interviews with investigators.
