Police search for man accused in shooting

Suspect Labarion Alexander

Shreveport Police detectives are searching for a man accused of shooting another back in mid-September.

On September 17, 2018, Shreveport Police responded to the 800 block of Rebecca Street on reports of shots being fired. On officers arrival they made contact with 38-year-old Torrey Antwine who was suffering from at least one gunshot injury to the upper body. Antwine was transported to University Health Hospital with that was described as non-life threatening injuries.

Investigators with the Violent Crimes Division responded to the scene and launched their investigation. Through evidence collected from the scene and interviews, detectives were able to procure a warrant charging 23-year-old Labarion Alexander with Aggravated Battery in the matter. His bond was set at $150,000.00.

Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward for information leading to the arrest of Alexander. Contact their organization at 318-673-7373, lockemup.org, or via their app P3Tips to submit information anonymously. Remember, Crime Stoppers only wants your information, not your name.
