FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police charge man in multiple vehicle burglaries

Suspect Sam Duncan

Shreveport Police have a man in custody accused of multiple vehicle burglaries in west Shreveport.

On October 5, 2018, Shreveport Police responded to reports of subjects pulling automobile door handles in the 6300 block of Casa Linda Circle. Officers arrived and attempted to detain at least three individuals but they all fled on foot. 18-year-old Sam Duncan, of the 100 block of East Lister Street, was apprehended by officers a short time later.

Following review of home surveillance videos Duncan was charged with six counts of Principal to Simple Burglary, one count of Attempted Simple Burglary, and four counts of vehicle burglary. He is currently being held at Caddo Correctional Center on all charges.
