Arrest made in domestic related stabbing

Suspect Kermit Young

Shreveport Police have arrested a man following a weekend domestic dispute turned stabbing.

On October 14, 2018 just after 12:30 am, Shreveport Police Patrol Officers responded to the 2600 block of Greenwood Road at Willis Knighton North Hospital on reports of a stabbing. Arriving officers contacted Reeshetah Young, who was suffering from at least one non-life threatening stab wound to her upper body.

Detectives with Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit responded to the scene and began their preliminary investigation. Following interviews with witnesses, investigators learned that Reeshetah and her husband, 42-year-old Kermit Young of the 2900 block of Lakehurst Avenue, engaged in a verbal dispute that turned physical. Kermit allegedly armed himself with a knife and cut Reeshetah on her shoulder and forearm.

On October 17, 2018, Kermit Young surrendered himself to investigators and was subsequently booked into the Shreveport City Jail on one count of Aggravated Battery.
