FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Man slain following overnight shooting

A Shreveport man is dead while another man recovers following a double shooting in west Shreveport Sunday evening.

Just before midnight on November 4, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 2700 block of Waggoner Avenue relative to a shooting. As officers arrived at the scene of the crime, they learned two men had suffered gunshot wounds while sitting inside a black sedan parked in the parking lot of an apartment community.   Bobby Ray Rainey, 29, died at the scene of the crime, while the second victim, whose name has not been released, sustained a gunshot wound to the face and was taken via ambulance to Oschner's LSU Health with serious injuries.

Shreveport Police Violent Crimes detectives were called to the scene and immediately began their probe of the shooting. At current, no suspects have been arrested in connection with the shooting; however investigators are continuing to gather information and evidence in hopes of determining the identity and whereabouts of the responsible party. Persons with any information regarding this crime, they are urged to contact Crimestoppers at: www.lockemup.org or visit p3tips.com to leave a tip via the website. Crimestoppers is offering a reward of $1,000.00 for information leading to the arrest of those responsible for this crime.
