Shreveport Police investigating pair of fatal shootings overnight

Shreveport Police detectives are investigating a pair of shootings in west Shreveport which left two men deceased.

Just after 1:00 a.m. on November 13, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the intersection of Fairfax Avenue at Corbitt Street relative to a shooting. Upon officer's arrival there, it was learned an adult male was laying on the ground suffering what appeared to be multiple gunshot wounds. The unidentified man was transported to Oschner's LSU Health Hospital where he succumbed to his injuries.

At approximately 3:40 a.m., authorities responded to the 4000 block of Mayfield Street relative to a man located in a vacant lot. The man, whose identity remains unknown, was suffering what appeared to be a single gunshot wound to the lower body. The man was taken to Oschner's LSU Health Hospital, where he later died. Investigators with the Shreveport Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit are currently working both incidents and are seeking information relative to suspects. In each incident multiple spent shell casings were recovered. At current, investigators are working to determine if there is any link to the shootings. Persons with any information relative to the shooting are asked to contact Crimestoppers at: (318) 673-7373 or visit P3tips.com to leave a tip online. Crimestoppers is offering a reward of up to $1,000.00 for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for these crimes.
