PRESS RELEASE

August 21, 2013

Mayor Updates Neighborhood Association Leaders

Mayor Cedric Glover on Saturday, August 24, will provide neighborhood association leaders with an update on a variety of city-related issues, including the Shreveport-Caddo 2030 Master Plan and the unified development code.

The meeting, which is scheduled to last about two hours, begins promptly at 9 a.m. at the Independence Stadium Skybox.

Dara Sanders, master plan administrator, will discuss elements of the plan that impact various neighborhoods and how citizens can stay involved in the process. An update on projects related to the 2011 bond issue also will be provided.

“During our recent town hall meetings, it became clear to me from the questions being asked that we needed to bring all our neighborhood association leaders together to discuss our collective issues,” Mayor Glover said. “I’m looking forward to this exchange of thoughts, ideas, plans and concerns because I believe this type of dialogue ultimately gets everyone on the same page and moving in the same direction.”
