Shreveport man sought on domestic battery charges

Shreveport Police investigators are seeking the whereabouts of a man accused of domestic abuse battery back in November.

On November 27, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 8200 block of Wildbriar Drive relative to a physical domestic call. During officers probe of the incident, it was learned a female victim was allegedly strangled around the neck by her boyfriend who fled the scene prior to officer arrival.

Since the investigation began, police detectives have gathered information and evidence leading them to name 33 year old Kendrick Pratt as a suspect in the crime. Investigators procured a warrant for Pratt's arrest, charging him with a single count of domestic abuse battery with strangulation. Persons with any information on the whereabouts of Kendrick Pratt are asked to contact Crimestoppers at (318) 673-7373 or visit their website at www.lockemup.org.
