Shreveport man sought on domestic battery charges

Shreveport Police investigators are seeking the whereabouts of a man accused of domestic abuse battery.

On November 26, 2018, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 4300 block of Walter Street relative to a welfare concern. Upon arrival, officers made contact with a female victim who was suffering from minor injuries. The victim advised she and her child's father, 29-year-old John Jones, were involved in an argument that turned violent. Jones allegedly struck the victim in the face with a closed fist. Investigators procured a warrant for Jones's arrest, charging him with one count of Domestic Abuse Battery with Child Endangerment. Bond in the matter has been set at $7,500.00.

Investigators are asking anyone with the whereabouts of Jones to contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318 673-7373, www.lockemup.org or via their app, P3Tips.
