FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shreveport Police investigate fatal crash

Shreveport Police Crash investigators are in the early stages of an on-going inquiry into the death of a man who was found deceased inside a partially submerged pickup truck Friday evening.

Just after 5:00 p.m. on January 4, 2019, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to a single vehicle crash in the 600 block of Mount Zion Road. As officers arrived at the scene, it was discovered 31 year old Cederick Robinson's body was still inside his 2011 Chevrolet Silverado. Robinson had been reported as a missing person two days prior by relatives after he had not been heard from.

Authorities from the Shreveport Fire Department's dive team assisted in the removal of the remains, which were taken custody of by the Caddo Parish Coroner's office. At current, the accident remains under investigation.
