FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media arrangements for funeral services for Officer Chatèri Payne

Good afternoon. Please be advised the family of Officer Chatèri Payne has allowed access to her services on Friday January 11, and for Saturday January 12, 2019 with the following requests:

1. There are absolutely no interviews, questions, or phone contact etc. with immediate family members of Officer Payne unless initiated by the family.
2. Please do not capture or broadcast in any way, any images, live, still or blurred of Officer Payne in her casket while the casket is open.
3. Please exercise good judgement and professionalism.
4. If you must leave the services for any reason during the service, please do so with as little distraction as possible.

Please note that any persons who refuse to adhere to these request will be asked to leave the service. Additionally, there will be an area to plug in to the sound board; however please provide your own audio lines. The media director for Summer Grove has asked that all media be in place by 10:00 a.m. No media will be allowed to set up after that point.

Per funeral directors, as of 5:00 p.m. this date, please be advised that there will be a private viewing for police officers from 10a.m. -12 noon, at the Winnfield Funeral Home, and followed by a public viewing from Noon until 4:00 p.m. The media will be allowed to come to the funeral home at Noon. Please call me should any questions arise.
