FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Police seek identity of robbery suspect

Unidentified robbery suspect

Shreveport Police Robbery detectives are asking the public's help to identify a suspect believed responsible for the early February robbery and attempted kidnapping of a woman at a west Shreveport convenience store.

On February 10, 2019, Shreveport Police patrol officers responded to reports of an attempted kidnapping and robbery at the Otto's Citgo in the 3600 block of Hollywood Avenue. Store personnel provided detectives with video footage of the incident, which shows a black male wearing a two-toned blue jacket, blue jeans, brown boots, and gloves approach the victim as she walked up to her car. The suspect tackled the woman and forced her into her vehicle against her will. The woman fiercely fought her attacker and was able to maintain possession of her car keys and escape the vehicle. The suspect took items of value from within the car and fled the scene.

Detectives have combed the city and have not yet located or identified this man. They believe he will attack again, and urge anyone with information that can help authorities identify this man to contact Shreveport Police immediately at 318-673-6955. Those wishing to remain anonymous can contact Shreveport Caddo Crime Stoppers at 318 673-7373 or via their app, P3Tips. We welcome all tips, every bit of information is important to us.
