FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Suspect in robbery and attempted kidnapping nabbed by U.S. Marshals

Suspect Earnest White

A Shreveport man wanted in connection with a February attempted robbery and kidnapping is now in police custody following his arrest Tuesday.

Earnest White, 41, of the 6900 block of Gold Leaf Circle, was arrested Tuesday by U.S. Marshal's Task Force Agents after he was spotted in the 1700 block of Forsythe Avenue in Monroe, Louisiana.

White was being sought on an outstanding warrant for his arrest in connection with the February 10th attempted robbery and kidnapping of a woman in 3600 block of Hollywood Avenue. White allegedly accosted the woman and forced her into her car where he attempted to drive off with her. The woman managed to fight off White and escape, suffering only minor injuries. White has been charged with attempted kidnapping and simple robbery. Bond in the matter has been set at half a million dollars.
