FROM THE MAYOR

Shreveport was a desolate outpost until Henry Miller Shreve cleared the 180-mile logjam known as the Great Raft, opening the Red River's shipping lanes and our ports for business. Today, Shreveport is the center of a network that fuels business across the globe.

Shreveport sits at the intersection of I-20 and I-49, connecting Kansas City and Lafayette, Dallas and Atlanta. Our river port continues to drive commerce, gaining businesses access to domestic and international markets through the Mississippi River and the Gulf Intracoastal Waterway. Shreveport Regional is the second most trafficked freight airport in Louisiana. Our intricate railway system serves as yet another channel of trade.

Shreveport is the economic hub of the Ark-La-Tex.

Our people are our most valuable resource. We are the third largest city in the State of Louisiana with 200,000 residents and a metropolitan area of nearly half-a-million people. This versatile, productive workforce is the engine that drives industry across the Ark-La-Tex.

This workforce is a product of our commitment to quality education and vocational training. Caddo Parish has 62 schools, twelve of which have been designated Blue Ribbon Schools by the U.S. Department of Education. Additionally, we have a higher education system that boasts one of the best private liberal arts colleges in the country, a four-year state university, and a community college—not to mention, a vocational school that offers an assortment of job training programs.

Shreveport is also home to a robust medical community. This community includes three major hospital systems, the only certified trauma center in North Louisiana, a major nursing school, as well as a renowned medical and allied health school.

The Official State Theatre of Louisiana, The Strand, anchors our downtown. It offers off-Broadway shows that appeal to our diverse community. We are proud to host the State's oldest continually operating professional symphony as well. Our downtown riverfront also includes food and shopping, as well as a state of the art aquarium.

Shreveport is a city on the rise. We appointed our first Chief Technology Officer this year, tasked with implementing smart-city initiatives that foster economic growth. Our eyes are fixed on the future.

Shreveport's doors are open. We welcome new industry and are eager to work with existing businesses to help them expand. Shreveport is also a fair share city, ensuring that minority businesses and women-owned companies have a place in our economy.

This community is a great place to live and work. Take a tour of our city, and you will see why more and more people are choosing to invest in Shreveport. ◀

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

DEAR INVESTORS,

First, I would like to say that I am very proud and humbled to have been selected to be your next Board Chairman of The Greater Shreveport Chamber of Commerce. For me, the Chamber of Commerce has always been regarded as one of the top business organizations in our community consisting of business men and women who represent many of the successful industries in our area. I often remember my father, Dr. L. M. "Monty" Harrison, Jr. (who was a member) refer to the Chamber of Commerce as such a prestigious organization yet extremely effective with representing our business community in our local and state governments. Now as Board Chairman, words cannot express how proud I am to serve in this capacity on behalf of the Board of Directors and all of the investors. I cannot forget to mention the outstanding leadership that has come before me. Past Chairman Steve Roop did a fantastic job last year as he carried on the legacy of the many great leaders before him. His support and work with President, Dr. Tim Magner helped build our relevance within our community and the continued growth in our investors. So, thank you Steve for leaving the Chamber in possibly the best condition we have seen in years!

The Chamber has so much legacy and tradition to carry forward. It has been the pillar of the Shreveport business community since its inception back in 1910. As a business owner myself, I have always trusted the Chamber to fight in Baton Rouge and Washington D.C. for the things that matter to our local businesses. The Chamber will continue to advocate for good public policy, solid education, better tax policies for our businesses and promote harmony and positive dialog with our local elected officials. Having been involved with the Chamber of Commerce for almost twenty years now, I have learned how incredibly important our Chamber is to the community. Whether it is related to economic development, military affairs, public policy, healthcare, or education, the Chamber finds ways to impact our community for the good through our advocacy and involvement. The incredible Chamber staff is working every day to make our Chamber useful to its investors and support our local businesses. I am amazed at the work they do behind the scenes to make our local Chamber of Commerce so successful.

Your new Board is ready to go to work. We met together during our Board Retreat in January and are energized for the new 2019 year. This year we have a very strong Board of Directors and Executive Committee that consists of leaders from many different industries. This will help us better connect with all of our businesses and their needs this year. Some of the important key initiatives that we find priority for 2019 are as follows:

- Help resolve and move forward with the completion of the last section of I-49 in our community.
- Work with our new City leaders as they settle into office and establish their goals for our community. We will stay engaged with the City of Shreveport as well as with Parish leaders regularly to help accomplish common goals.
- Continue to have open dialogue with leaders in the Caddo Parish School System to better communicate the needs of the business community as it relates to our workforce.

- Provide support to our local healthcare providers and LSU Medical School.
- Stay engaged with the issues that affect our local businesses as they arise and advocate for positive outcomes.
- Continue to work with Barksdale AFB and support their efforts as they face current challenges. Barksdale continues to be such an incredible part of our community with both its airmen and economic impact.
- Work with local and state economic development entities such as LED and NLEP by supporting their efforts to develop new industry in our region and bring future businesses to Northwest Louisiana.

Last, I want to encourage you to please make an extra effort to attend our Chamber events this year. There are so many different opportunities to get involved with at the Chamber and meet new people. Whether it is a Business Development Connection luncheon or a sponsored event at the Chamber – get involved! You will be amazed at how many events and activities there are with the Greater Shreveport Chamber of Commerce. When meetings and events are well attended, they are no doubt more productive! A great way to be informed with what's going on with the Chamber is the weekly newsletter that is distributed each Monday. I have found them to be incredibly helpful with knowing when events are and providing information about new and existing investors. This year, we have an opportunity to really make a difference in our community through the work of the Chamber of Commerce. My plan is to exhaust all of my efforts towards making the Chamber a better organization than ever before. Do not ever hesitate to reach out to me for ideas of improvement, recommendations, your requests, or even complaints. I am glad to serve this year as your Board Chairman and look forward to another fantastic year in 2019! ◀

LOUISIANA

The Center of Culture, Commerce, and Community in Northwest Louisiana

SINCE ITS FOUNDING IN 1835, Shreveport has been a focal point for economic development and a vibrant crossroads for people and ideas. Founded by the Shreve Town Company at the point in the Red River where Captain Henry Miller Shreve cleared the logjam called the 'Great Raft', Shreveport has evolved as the cultural and commercial center of an area which encompasses Northwest Louisiana but extends to include Southwest Arkansas and Northeast Texas, an area we affectionately call the Ark-La-Tex.

Just as Shreveport sits today at the confluence of east-west Interstate Highway 20 and north-south Interstate Highway 49, Shreveport has been a cultural crossroads for generations. The result is a festive mix of Cajun and Creole spices from south Louisiana with cowboy boots and oil rigs from nearby east Texas. Folks around here root for the NFL New Orleans Saints and Dallas Cowboys as well as college teams from Louisiana Tech, Grambling, LSU, Arkansas and Texas A&M. Shreveport hosts the Louisiana State Fair as well as the annual crawfish eating marvel that is the Mudbug Festival. We host the Red River Revel Arts and Music Festival and at least five different Mardi Gras parades complete with floats and beads galore. We have gumbo cooking contests, barbeque cook-offs, and both a wine and a craft beer festival. Not to mention at least 3 local craft breweries and a restaurant scene that includes Indian, Italian, Middle Eastern and Asian and range from tony steakhouses, to taco trucks and everything in between.

Shreveport's also the commercial center of the Ark-La-Tex with two airports, rail, port and road infrastructure. Ranked as one of the most cost competitive places to do business and among the top ten communities for economic potential, the Greater Shreveport area offers competitive advantages that make us a world class location for high quality talent, innovative companies, and global investment.

The Greater Shreveport area also supports a diverse and balanced economy which was named among the top "25 Cities on the Rise" in Louisiana by NerdWallet.com and No. 18 among "Best Opportunity Cities" by Forbes magazine. Southern Business and Development called Shreveport a "Game Changing Community."

The Greater Shreveport-Bossier area also offers a wide range of communities to suit any lifestyle choice. Whether it's a funky downtown loft that is walking distance to bistros and the theater, a suburban-style bedroom community, country club and golf course living, historic neighborhoods with stately homes, or a rural retreat, Shreveport has it all. And with access to some of the best schools in the state, Shreveport has a neighborhood community that is right for you. So, whether you are looking for something familiar, or something a little different, chances are you'll find it here in Shreveport. Come give Shreveport a try, you'll be glad you did! Shreveport has been welcoming newcomers and businesses since being founded by the Shreve Town Company in 1835.

From beautiful lakes to gripping sites along the Red River, there is much to see and do in Greater Shreveport. Recently named one of the happiest cities in the nation, it's no wonder so many choose this vibrant metropolis as their home. The compassion for family, appreciation for the arts and dedication to business derive from the strong roots on which the city originated from.

Shreveport is also known for its smaller sister city, Bossier City with only the river separating them. Together they have six historic districts as well as many landmarks which are listed on the National Register. Among all Louisiana cities with multiple historic landmarks, Shreveport ranks second only to New Orleans.

Shreveport continues to make amazing strides toward growth and residents can expect further development of the downtown area that will continue to bring additional opportunities for both business and leisure. The city certainly originates from a rich culture and history, which makes it a wonderful place to visit and an even better place to call home. ◀ but the Red River was once engulfed by large amounts of driftwood and was completely un-navigable. Thousands of years of flooding had caused debris and dislodged trees to create a logjam which resulted in an amalgamation that was wedged so tightly that a person could actually walk across it. The approximately 180-mile-long area was named the Great Raft. Commanding the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Captain Henry Miller Shreve took a “snagboat” design he’d been working on and built a vessel called the Heliopolis, which was equipped with a steam-powered windlass that was used to pull large masses of wood and debris from the water. Secretary of War, Lewis Cass, ordered Captain Shreve to clear the Great Raft with the Heliopolis. The Shreve Town Company and the village of Shreve Town were named in Captain Henry Miller Shreve’s honor. It was on March 20, 1839, that the town was incorporated as “Shreveport.”

Shreveport was incorporated as a city in 1871 and its original boundaries were contained within a 64-block district located just west of the Red River. The economy and growth of Shreveport was based on steamboat commerce and centered on the river throughout the 1800s. The early key industries included lumber and manufacturing, and also included cotton and other agricultural crops. In time, as businesses began relying on the railroads as a means of shipping products and goods, the river once again became impassible due to a waning of steamboat traffic and debris accumulation. In 1994, the river underwent restoration that renewed the Shreveport-Bossier area as a thriving port and shipping center. Once the river opened to steamboats again, riverboat gambling returned to the port and to this day draws in large degrees of revenue from tourism. ◀

BARKSDALE

AIR FORCE BASE

“Over 14,000 active duty, civilians and dependents call Northwest Louisiana home as a result of the presence of Barksdale Air Force Base.”

WHAT WAS ONCE COTTON FIELDS in Northwestern Louisiana has evolved into one of the largest bomb wings in the Air Force – the 2nd Bomb Wing at Barksdale Air Force Base. Barksdale is also home of the mighty Eighth Air Force, which played a pivotal role in World War II. Also headquartered here is Air Force Global Strike Command, which is responsible for ballistic missiles, the entire bomber fleet and the nuclear enterprise.

Since the early 1930s, Barksdale Air Force Base, once known as Barksdale Field, has been a cornerstone that proudly serves the local community by offering employment opportunities and generating revenue in the local economy, while simultaneously providing nuclear deterrence, global strike and combat support operations. This base is home to more than 8,500 active duty, reserve and civilian personnel and the mighty B-52 Stratofortress.

Throughout the years, Barksdale was the host of numerous aircraft supporting many different missions from A-8 Shrikes and Douglas B-18 Bolos to KC-97 Stratofreighter aerial tankers and KC-135 Stratotankers. The base was also a training site for the famous 17th Bomb Group, led by Gen. Jimmy Doolittle before their raid on Tokyo in April 1942.

Barksdale has also played pivotal roles in many famous operations such as Operation

Just Cause in December 1989, Operation Desert Shield in August 1990 and Operation Desert Storm in January 1991.

Today, Barksdale hosts the full-spectrum of B-52 training and operations. The 11th and 93rd Bomb Squadrons provide initial B-52 training while the 340th Weapons Squadron trains aircrew in graduate-level B-52 tactics. The 20th, 96th and Air Force Reserve 343rd Bomb Squadrons are responsible for executing long-range strike operations around the globe.

The Mighty Eighth, is comprised of six wings, the 608th Air Operations Squadron and the 595th Command and Control Group. The Eighth Air Force mission is to safeguard America’s interests through strategic deterrence and global combat power.

Also hosted at Barksdale is Air Force Global Strike Command. This command is made up of more than 33,000 experts under two numbered air forces, nine wings at eight bases around the continental United States with Airmen deployed to various bases around the world.

Together, these three commands make Barksdale one of the most powerful places in the world. Barksdale Air Force Base was named after Lt. Eugene Hoy Barksdale, Air Corps, U.S. Army, to honor his legacy and accomplishments after his death in 1926.

In 1931, when construction began, past leaders knew this 22,000 acre plot of land was going to be the foundation for a powerful force. However, it’s not the land or commands that makes this place extraordinary. It’s the people who make up this fighting force and execute the mission every single day.

It is the aircrew flying bomber missions, the chefs preparing meals, the defenders watching the gates, the groundskeepers taking care of the land, the maintainers repairing, and many more who defend our country every day from right here in Louisiana.

This diverse group executes the Barksdale mission and epitomizes the legacy of the 2nd Bomb Wing motto, Libertatem Defendimus: “Liberty We Defend.” ◀ Barksdale Air Force Base, located in Bossier City, Louisiana, was dedicated on February 2, 1933 and was the result of many years of work by prominent citizens of Shreveport, Louisiana. As a result of their efforts, Bossier City was selected as the site of what at that time was the largest air field in the world, and construction began in 1931. Barksdale Air Force base is named for Lt. Eugene Hoy Barksdale, a veteran of World War I who was killed while flight testing an O-2 observation aircraft in 1926.

Today, Barksdale Air Force Base is home to headquarters Air Force Global Strike Command, Eighth Air Force, Second Bomb Wing and 307th Bomb Wing, Air Force Reserve. Forty seven B-52G aircraft are stationed at Barksdale. Over 14,000 active duty, civilians and dependents call Northwest Louisiana home as a result of the presence of Barksdale Air Force Base. The annual Economic Impact of Barksdale on the local economy is over $821 million.

Barksdale Air Force Base and its personnel have a long history of supporting our nation in combat operations. In World War II, Barksdale was a bomber training base providing flight training to pilots and aircrews in the B-26, B-17 and B-29. Other aircraft stationed at Barksdale over the years have included the B-45, B-47, KC-97, KC-135 and KC-10 aircraft. The Global Power Museum located at Barksdale Air Force Base (free and open to the public) pays tribute to the history of the men, women and aircraft that have been associated with Barksdale Air Force Base. The first combat mission in operation Desert Storm was launched from Barksdale, when seven B-52Gs flew a 35 hour mission-the longest combat mission in history at that time-to fire conventional air launched cruise missiles against Iraq. Immediately following the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001, President George Bush chose Barksdale as a secure location from which to speak to the American Public.

The “Mighty Eighth” Air Force, of World War II fame, is headquartered at the base. Barksdale is home to the 2nd Bomb Wing, 2nd Operations Group, 2nd Maintenance Group, 2nd Mission Support Group, the 2nd Medical Group, Eighth Air Force Museum (which maintains the historical aircraft and artifacts that grace the base) and the Air Force Reserve’s 917th Wing.

Barksdale is an integral part of the Ark-La-Tex region, and we are proud to support our men and women who choose to serve our great nation. ◀

COMMUNITY & RELOCATION

NESTLED BETWEEN THE BANKS

of the Red River and the Texas state line, there's a city teeming with potential, artistic flair and southern hospitality that's so sweet, it'll make your lips pucker. That city is Shreveport.

Having lived in and around the Shreveport area my entire life, I've been privileged enough to see Shreveport's potential grow. Our city has pretty much anything anyone could ever need. We've got a low cost of living, with plenty of available real estate. From renovated downtown warehouse lofts to mansions on a golf course, horse ranches to historic homes with large oak trees, Shreveport has it all. Or maybe you just want to live in a good school district on a peaceful street. In Shreveport, we've got those, too.

Aside from just a house, a city needs amenities and luxuries that set it apart to make you want to call it home. Living in Shreveport, it will take you no more than 20 minutes to get anywhere you want to go in the city, even at peak rush hour times. We have some of the best K-12 schools in the state, plus a four-year state university, a two-year state university, a private liberal arts college, various vocational schools, as well as both a nursing school and a medical school. As for shopping, we've got the major retailers and grocery chains, but we also have some of the best locally-owned, unique shops with all the southern hospitality and customer service you could possibly stand. Our weather is fantastic, and you can enjoy the outdoors year-round. Who wouldn't want to live somewhere like Shreveport?

And dining? Oh, man! Louisianans love to eat, and Shreveport is no different! With the influence from Barksdale Air Force Base just across the river and our perfect positioning at the intersections of I-49 and I-20, our food culture is quite diverse. We've got Hawaiian, Mexican, Indian, Vietnamese, Italian, Chinese, Middle Eastern, Japanese, Texas-style bar-be-que, Peruvian, Southern soul food and of course, Cajun and Creole. Everyone's dining taste buds can be satisfied in Shreveport.

One of the best things about our city is the vibrant arts community. Most cities of our size can't say that they are home to the official state theatre, a symphony, an opera and a ballet. But Shreveport can. You can drive into nearly any part of our city and see the influence from the arts. From huge murals towering over downtown to the sounds of the multitude of local musicians playing nightly, you'll find your creative inspiration in Shreveport.

Perhaps traditional art isn't your thing. Maybe you'd rather enjoy the beauty of mother nature. With a plethora of lakes, running trails, 63 public parks and local, regional and national sporting events, your desire to get outside can be exercised in Shreveport.

By and large, though, the best thing about Shreveport is our people. Our culture is a mix of South Louisiana's ingenuity, East Texas' hard-working attitude and Southern Arkansas' love for nature. The people here play, just as hard as they work. And even though Shreveport is technically a city, the small-town feel means you'll always find a helping hand and a friendly face, even in a crowd full of strangers. So, welcome to our big, little city! We look forward to learning more about you, while showing you the best we have to offer in Shreveport. ◀

Factors that make Shreveport-Bossier Competitive:

- Louisiana Effectively Provides a Zero Cooperate Income Tax Environment for Items Produced in Louisiana and Exports to Other Regions.
- As of July 2009, Shreveport-Bossier's electricity, water, natural gas, machinery, and equipment used by production centers and manufacturers, are effectively exempt from sales tax. That means businesses can afford to invest in the very best production equipment without needless overhead increases.
- Louisiana's low number of unionized workers and the ratio of worker skill-to-pay favors the businesses and organizations seeking the best talent at the most affordable rates.
- Louisiana businesses have a plethora of incentives from state, local and federal levels, including many tax incentives unique to the state and region.
- Louisiana, as a right-to-work state, allows business owners the flexibility to select and retain the most productive laborers.
- Shreveport recently passed a nondiscrimination clause to ensure all businesses and their workers are protected from intolerance, further adding to the cultural and professional value of the region.
- With the completion of I-49 North, and the projected completion of 3132, expansion to the Port of Caddo-Bossier will make the region a hub for east-west and north-south travelers, and will provide important shipping avenues for manufacturers.

AS YOU WILL SEE

in the following pages, the Greater Shreveport-Bossier area is truly the commercial capital of the Ark-La-Tex. Covered by robust transportation infrastructure including two airports, and bustling rail, port and road systems, Shreveport is centrally located and amply equipped to handle distribution and delivery by road, rail and water.

The region's economy is both balanced and diverse including manufacturing, construction, health care, information technology, tourism, retail, oil and gas development, casino gaming, and warehousing and distribution just to name a few.

With both an air force base and a medical school, the region is leveraging both medical and information technologies. Shreveport is a regional medical center hosting innovative biomedical research, as well as centers of excellence in cardiac and cancer care. The growing IT sector provides everything from web and app developers, support for local and federal government contracts to cutting-edge cyber security initiatives. Because of Shreveport's geographic location, affordable cost of living and expanding technology infrastructure, the region provides a unique opportunity for information companies and teleworkers to live here and work anywhere.

Much of the medical and IT innovation spring from relationships between our higher education institutions and the private sector. In addition to the LSU Medical School, workforce partnerships exist with four-year universities such as LSU Shreveport, Louisiana Tech, Southern University and Centenary College as well as Bossier Parish Community College and the Louisiana Technical College. These collaborations are two-way relationships that enable the educational institutions to update their curricula to respond to the needs of a changing economy, in turn preparing students to seamlessly enter the workforce prepared for today's demands.

Shreveport's food culture has exploded of late as well with a wide range of new restaurants representing cuisines from across the country and around the globe. While this is a cultural expansion, it also represents an important expression of the region's entrepreneurial spirit and capacity. Many of these innovative eateries are grown locally, with entrepreneurs leveraging our start-up ecosystem and the communities growing enthusiasm for new dining experiences to create healthy businesses and healthy dining options.

For businesses looking to start or grow, Shreveport-Bossier has some tremendous advantages, including available downtown office space for expansion or relocation, significant available land for construction and a wealth of architects, engineers and construction firms able to bring any commercial vision to life.

Shreveport-Bossier also benefits from a very competitive cost of living. Whether it is housing, utilities or amenities, the ability to experience small town charms like minimal traffic and walkable neighborhoods while enjoying big-city amenities such as 50 festivals, an opera, symphony and sporting events is part of what sets Shreveport apart.

Ranked as one of the most cost competitive places to do business and among the top ten communities for economic potential, the Greater Shreveport area offers competitive advantages that can make us your world class location for high quality talent, innovative companies, and global investment. ◀

*Quotient - Location quotient (LQ) is a way of quantifying how concentrated a particular industry, cluster, occupation, or demographic group is in a region as compared to the nation. It can reveal what makes a particular region “unique.” For example, if the leather products manufacturing industry accounts for 10% of jobs in your area but 1% of jobs nationally, then the area’s leather-producing industry has an LQ of 10. So in your area, leather manufacturing accounts for a larger than average “share” of total jobs—the share is ten times larger than normal.

Caddo Parish Public Schools

has a tremendous amount to offer in our incredibly diverse 62 campuses. From Vivian to Keithville and Greenwood to the Red River, our district encompasses nearly 39,000 students with dreams and hopes for a better Shreveport, Caddo Parish, Louisiana and nation.

Our mission as a school system is to provide each of these 39,000 future leaders with every skill needed for them to reach their wildest dreams. To do so, we have worked diligently to create strategic partnerships with various community groups – business, nonprofit, government and education – with the sole focus of improving their tomorrow.

Since I began my tenure as Superintendent in December 2013, I am proud to say Caddo Parish Public Schools has made incredible progress in improving student outcomes.

We are the state leader in National Merit Scholars, students scoring perfectly on the ACT, schools distinguished as National Blue Ribbon Schools of Excellence and students named as U.S. Presidential Scholars. This is only made possible through the joint efforts of our dedicated teachers and staff working hand-in-hand with our community.

In 2018, we had a banner year which showcased the positive momentum we have created in Caddo Parish. We began in April with two students earning titles as Louisiana State Middle and High School Students of the Year. By July, our very own Kathryn Ferguson of Youree Drive Middle School was selected as Louisiana Middle School Teacher of the Year. And in November we learned Caddo Parish Magnet High joined an elite select schools in the country in earning the school's second National Blue Ribbon. These accolades put us down a path in which I was honored as the 2019 Louisiana Superintendent of the Year not for my accomplishments but the accomplishments of our students and staff who are second to none. The best part of all of this? We are just getting started.

Being a part of Caddo Parish Public Schools is to be a part of a district unlike any other. We are a district which embraces our diversity -- comprised of rural, urban and suburban areas with students from all walks of life. Additionally, we are a district found in a community which understands the integral role each person plays in the success of our children and works to make a difference whether through efforts in our Transformation Zone or volunteering at their child's school.

Another highlight for the families of Caddo Parish is the wealth of higher education options so close to home. With technical schools, community colleges, public universities and a private liberal arts college right here in our backyard, the path to higher education and further training is a short one.

We invite you to be a part of this amazing journey and see for yourself what sets Caddo Parish apart. We are Caddo is more than a slogan. It is a battle cry and a charge upon this school system to expect nothing less than the best. We are strong. We are committed. We are Caddo! ◀ is a unique place set in the northwest corner of our state. When I first moved to Shreveport in 2003 for medical school, it took me a little bit to realize that this city was something special. Shreveport is a well-sized city with a population of almost 200,000, which does not include our sister city, Bossier, just across the river. Together, our local population is approximately 270,000 people – not too big, not too small. Our city is well-placed from larger cities such as Dallas, Houston, and New Orleans, which is why I think Shreveport has developed into a healthcare destination for not only North Louisiana, but the entire Ark-La-Tex region.

The city of Shreveport

To give you an idea of how strong our healthcare community is, did you know that healthcare is the top industry and employer for our city? That’s correct – healthcare employs over 18,000 people in the city of Shreveport, about 10% of our population! Look around our city and you will find options to fit all of your healthcare needs.

Shreveport has three major hospital systems: Ochsner-LSU Hospital, Willis-Knighton Health System, and Christus Highland Hospital. We are fortunate to have three Cancer Centers, a St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital Affiliate, a Children’s Miracle Network hospital, two Certified Primary Stroke Centers, and a Level 1 Trauma center, all here in Shreveport. From trauma to cardiology, cancer to stroke, primary care to specialists, these three systems offer comprehensive health care for adults and children.

In addition, we cannot overlook the Overton Brooks VA Hospital to help serve our local and regional veterans, and Shriner’s Children Hospital, which treats a variety of pediatric orthopedic conditions and dentofacial deformities, such as cleft lip and palate. (In fact, it was the first Shriner’s Hospital in the country!)

Finally, we have LSUHealth Shreveport. With schools of Medicine, Allied Health and Graduate Studies, as well as 37 ACGME and 3 CODA Accredited residency and fellowship training programs, this institution is training tomorrow’s healthcare leaders. In fact, 70% of the practicing physicians in Shreveport did all or part of their education and training at LSUHealth Shreveport.

Shreveport is a special community with a wide range of specialty trained physicians, hospitals and clinics, and other healthcare providers to serve your every need. Our healthcare community provides the latest therapies and interventions, as well as, participates in innovative research for the advancement of medical care. Quality healthcare here at home in Shreveport. ◀

TOURISM & RECREATION

So what is it about Shreveport-Bossier: Louisiana's Other Side that sets it apart?

It's that unique combination of two great American heritages. It's a little Cajun and a little Texas. Shreveport-Bossier is ideally situated 15 minutes east of the Texas border. It's a true hub for entertainment, culture, transportation, and commerce.

Here, you'll find the influence reflected in north Louisiana cities' mouth-watering cuisine, where flavorful Texas steak may be combined with spicy Louisiana crawfish. Or you might find it in the music, with nightclubs and concerts for jazz, country, bluegrass, folk, southern soul, and everything in between.

Though most know the destination for its six Vegas-style casinos and racetrack, festivals are Shreveport-Bossier's trademark. They are held from the time the first warm breeze dances across your face to the time cool air convinces everyone it's time to go indoors. The fun continues with shopping at the Louisiana Boardwalk Outlets, Line Avenue's five-miles of stores and restaurants, Shoppes at Bellemead, and those special homegrown stores like Enchanted Garden and Agora Borealis.

People ask, so what else makes Shreveport-Bossier so special? It's the people, hands-down. Chef Hardette Harris treats you like you are dining in her family home when you participate in her Us Up North dining experiences, a cultural celebration of the foods that people from north Louisiana enjoy like hot water cornbread, fried catfish, purple hull peas, fried okra, and a long list of other delectable foods.

When you walk in the more than two dozen museums and art galleries, you'll get a warm welcome and friendly face showcasing everything from the various ethnicities that make this place so special to the military prowess of Barksdale Air Force Base. Kid friendly attractions abound, too. Explore the new Shreveport Aquarium, Sci-Port Discovery Center, Gators and Friends Adventure Park, and Artspace.

If you love the outdoors, be sure to stop and smell the roses at the American Rose Center, hike and enjoy a picnic at Cypress Black Bayou and Recreation Park, take a leisure cruise on the Spirit of the Red River Cruise, or fish off the pier at Earl G. Williamson Park.

When you're planning a trip remember, Mardi Gras kicks things off in February. Other festivals include Gumbo Gladiators (March), Ark-La-Tex Ambassadors BBQ Festival (April), Mudbug Madness Festival (May), Let the Good Times Roll Festival (June), Red River Hot Air Balloon Rally (July), Red River Revel Arts Festival (September), Prize Fest (October) State Fair of Louisiana (November), and Christmas in Roseland (December).

DINING

When you think of Louisiana cuisine,

what comes to mind? The piping hot beignets and seafood-stuffed po' boys of New Orleans? Steaming bowls of gumbo and spicy boiled crawfish platters from Cajun country? All of those world famous flavors of the Bayou State – and more – can be found right here in Shreveport.

Shreveport's culinary culture is influenced by the Cajun and Creole kitchens of South Louisiana as well as the slow-smoked barbecue traditions of neighboring Texas. Throw in the "country cooking" and soul food traditions of the Deep South, as well as a huge assortment of international eateries supported by Barksdale Air Force Base, and you've got a recipe for one of the most diverse culinary landscapes in the country.

Looking to sample some famous local dishes? Start out with a Shrimp Buster from Herby-K's, a legendary seafood hole-in-the-wall that's been in business since 1936, or an order of Shreveport-style stuffed shrimp from Orlandeaux's Café, a neighborhood eatery that traces its history back nearly 100 years. For dessert, head to Strawn's Eat Shop for a slice of their famous strawberry pie, which Southern Living has named one of the best pies in America. Wash it all down with a craft beer from Shreveport's Great Raft Brewing, which is commonly listed among the best breweries in the South.

Locally raised meats and produce are available year-round at a variety of farm stores and seasonal farmers' markets. The Shreveport Farmers' Market takes place on Saturday mornings during the summer and fall. The market emphasizes locally raised meats, fruits and vegetables. Several smaller neighborhood markets, including the Provenance Farmers' Market in South Shreveport and multiple markets in and around Bossier City, also offer locally raised products from farms in nearby communities like Haughton, Doyline and Dixie.

Food is central to many of the most popular festivals and annual events in Shreveport. For many locals, it'd be difficult to imagine a Memorial Day Weekend without a platter of crawfish from the Mudbug Madness Festival or a Saturday in fall without a funnel cake from the State Fair of Louisiana. Other foodie-friendly events include the Battle of the Gumbo Gladiators (held each March), Let the Good Times Roll Festival (held each June), and Red River Revel Arts Festival (held each October). Each March, the Shreveport-Bossier Convention and Tourist Bureau partners with a variety of great local eateries to produce 318 Restaurant Week. For a complete list of festivals and annual events, check out the Shreveport-Bossier Fun Guide at www.SBFunGuide.com.

DOWNTOWN

We'd like to invite you to conduct some business with H.L. Hunt or Howard Hughes, strum a song with Huddie Ledbetter or croon a tune with Elvis, discuss the causes of black women with Cora Allen and debate politics with Annie McCune, the famous Shreveport Madam reputed to have a heart of gold. Our region's history- our stories, important buildings, and amazing architecture —are alive and well in downtown and our occasionally ribald and flamboyant history blends nicely with our plans for the future.

Walk through downtown and look at the century-old buildings under construction. Should you choose the modern condo with elevator, indoor parking, state-of-the-art security, original tin ceiling tiles and transom windows or the spare and sleek apartment with the jaw-dropping views on the penthouse level in a 107-year-old bank building? It's your decision whether to rent or own, and you'll have a lot of choices as inventory continues to be added to deal with pent-up demand for our high-ceilinged, natural light-filled spaces. Retail, restaurants, and a rejuvenated Red River District add to the appeal of living downtown as do nightly events as diverse as book clubs over dinner and yoga on the roof to film festivals and food crawls. Walk to one of the best farmers markets in the state, and take in a movie, a museum, a multicultural exhibit and an art show along the way. Pet a stingray at the Shreveport Aquarium and make complex math and science equations easy at Sci-Port: Louisiana's Discovery Center.

Elvis was once king downtown, but now art reigns supreme. Downtown is one of the state's Cultural Districts, home to the Official State Theater of Louisiana, the ornate Saenger-built Strand Theatre. The Strand shares headlines with the venerable Municipal Auditorium, once home to the nationally-broadcast Louisiana Hayride radio show, the Emmett Hook Performance Center, the Robinson Film Center, Riverview Theater, and multiple art halls, exhibit spaces, shops, and galleries. Art and business combine in our newest downtown project, the 9-block Shreveport Common art and culture district with The Common greenspace, public art and monthly programming.

We can promise you will run out of time before you run out of options- downtown is home to the monthly artwalk, and to symphony, opera, ballet and live theatrical performances. It's obvious that our city center is the perfect place to play, but it's also home to the seats of local government, law enforcement and the courts as well as the area's banking and financial infrastructure. More than 10,000 employees work in our sleek modern high rises and smaller historic spaces. Still others are looking for space to call their own. We welcome all, and will work to make the business of business easy, assisting business owners, entrepreneurs and developers in acquiring permits, understanding tax credits, and turning plans into action.

Downtown Shreveport's exciting history isn't over. We're writing new pages of it every day and are reserving the next chapters for you! ◀

GREATER SHREVEPORT CHAMBER

GROWING BUSINESS and BUILDING COMMUNITY

FOR MORE THAN 110 YEARS

the Greater Shreveport Chamber of Commerce has been a critical convener and a source of leadership and influence in the Shreveport-Bossier region.

In 2010 the Chamber adopted the red "S" logo to emphasize its role as a business bridge linking both sides of the Red River.

Over the past several years, the Chamber has realigned its focus making it more than a bridge by resuming its place as the voice of the business community and the leader for economic and business development in Shreveport.

The new Chamber logo, debuting January 2019, works to encapsulate this re-energized role and the organization's new vision through the multi-color, vibrant palette, updated fonts and a new star-inspired logo mark.

The shape of the Greater Shreveport Chamber's new mark is comprised of five arrow points focusing inward to form a star. The star is constructed in this way to demonstrate that Shreveport is a destination, truly a hub at the confluence of air, river, rail, major interstates and scenic state highways. Each is represented by a different colored arrow or the varied white spaces between the arrows.

The star also represents how diverse parts can work together to make something great! The whole of Shreveport truly is greater than the sum of its many parts. The range of investors and community partners who work with the chamber, represent a breadth of people and interests. When those segments work together, amazing things can happen for our community!

Finally, the five points of the star also represent the 5-star accreditation from the US Chamber of Commerce that the chamber recently achieved yet again, leading to almost two decades of this rare and important recognition.

The particular shades of each color were chosen for their sophistication and eye-catching contrast. At the bottom of the star and for the word "Chamber," a regal purple was chosen to symbolize royalty and ambition. The blue arrow "landing" in Shreveport is reminiscent of the B-52 aircraft. The green in the logo is indicative of both economic growth and the environmental wealth of our Sportsman's Paradise. The orange is a nod to the creative community here in Shreveport, as well as the growing number of young professionals in our city. And lastly, the red in the star represents the Red River to our east and gives a nod to our history and past logo.

Additionally, the Chamber elected to shorten the name to communicate the broadest brand value. By providing specific emphasis on "Greater Shreveport," the Chamber continues to reflect both its regional footprint and its aspiration to create a truly greater community.

We hope you'll join us as we enter a new era of reinvigorated enthusiasm for our city, its business community and our collective futures! ◀

The mission of the Greater Shreveport Chamber of Commerce is to promote economic prosperity, serve as a business advocate, and celebrate the achievements of our region.

Whether it is a groundbreaking ceremony or a ribbon cutting to commemorate a business opening its doors, we want to be there to celebrate with you every step of the way. The Chamber values its partnerships and cultivates a relationship to serve them.

RIBBON CUTTINGS, GRAND OPENINGS AND GROUNDBREAKINGS

One part of the Greater Shreveport Chamber's mission is to "celebrate the achievements of our region." What better way to do that than by celebrating our valued investors and their business milestones? As a Chamber investor, you can use these momentous occasions in your business's history to gain more attention and notoriety. Let us help! We'll post your celebration details on our website calendar, newsletter and social media pages, assist you with event planning, emcee the event, provide the ribbon and ceremonial-size scissors, plus we'll invite our Chamber Diplomats, Board of Directors and key city officials if you'd like. All at no cost to our investors.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Another way the Chamber celebrates our region is through the many special events we host throughout the year. Whether it's an awards dinner, a luncheon or a simple breakfast, there is always a reason to celebrate at the Greater Shreveport Chamber! Annually we host the Minority Business Opportunity Awards, the ATHENA International Leadership Awards Luncheon, the J. Pat Beaird Industry of the Year and Forum Small Businesses of the Year Awards and the annual 40 Under 40 Awards Gala.

Smaller more intimate gatherings like our Young Professionals Initiative (YPI) socials happen once a month. Both YPI and our Business Development Connection host quarterly lunch and learns that are designed to enhance professional development and business acumen respectively. Our Breakfast of Champions and "What's Happening" breakfasts are also quarterly. Breakfast of Champions highlights local businesses and our volunteers, while "What's Happening" offers broader perspective on issues in our community.

But that's not all! We also host our annual meeting to honor our investors and to talk about the year ahead. In the spring, the NWLA Golf Tournament - entering its 22nd year - is a fun, interactive teambuilding exercise for local businesses.

And in between all of those major events, we also partner with other agencies and economic development associations in the Ark-La-Tex to host workshops, classes and seminars to help your business grow and thrive! There's never a dull moment at the Chamber!

REFERRALS, EXPOSURE AND MORE

The Greater Shreveport Chamber is a tremendous resource for public exposure and business referrals.

Our five-star-accredited Chamber is among the top one percent of Chambers of Commerce in the nation, and we use our network to help promote our investors through personal calls, face-to-face visits, various publications and online at www.shreveportchamber.org.

We receive calls each month from individuals seeking to do business in the Greater Shreveport region, and we always refer them to one of our investor businesses. Plus, our website's online investor directory lists all of our investors, their addresses and contact information. And since our website is ranked at 5 by Google for search engine optimization, your investment in the Greater Shreveport Chamber gets you even more hits!

Investors can also take advantage of our discounted media packages, high social media saturation and media contacts to increase their visibility and exposure in the marketplace.

INFLUENCING LEGISLATION

The Greater Shreveport Chamber of Commerce's staff and Public Policy Committee act as advocates for local business. Through our advocates, the Chamber monitors the legislature and provides information to elected officials concerning matters of interest to our investors.

The Legislative Policy Committee of the Greater Shreveport Chamber has the responsibility to review and make recommendations to the Chamber Board of Directors on legislative policy and positions affecting business and the Northwest Louisiana community. Proposals for bond elections, potential new taxes, and state and federal legislation are examples of issues delegated to this committee.

Participation on this committee is limited to Chamber investors, particularly participants who have general knowledge of the political and legislative process. Committee members are asked to recommend policy positions that are in the interest of all Chamber investors and are not exclusive to special-interest issues. The committee also works toward a balance of volunteers who represent the diverse businesses that make up the entire investor population of the Chamber.

Participation in networking events and learning programs provided by the Greater Shreveport Chamber will help you make connections that matter and lead you to new business opportunities.

GREATER SHREVEPORT LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

For nearly 40 years, the Chamber has been identifying and preparing future leaders through the Greater Shreveport Leadership Program.

Program participants meet monthly and travel as a group to various locations throughout the community to experience our area's rich history and to become better acquainted with entities and issues related to government affairs, education, economic development, transportation, communications, small business and health care.

Graduates of this tuition-based program assume active roles in the Chamber and become involved in the development of initiatives that bring solutions to community challenges.

THE DIPLOMATS

The Diplomats are a volunteer group of business professionals who serve as community liaisons for the Greater Shreveport Chamber and act as the Chamber's Investor Retention Committee.

The Diplomats volunteer their time and resources to sustain a year-round retention program that involves making personal visits to Chamber investors, officiating ribbon-cutting ceremonies, celebrating new and expanding businesses, liking investor businesses on their social media pages and providing support at events hosted by the Chamber.

YOUNG PROFESSIONAL INITIATIVE

The Young Professional Initiative of Northwest LA (YPI) is a program of the Greater Shreveport Chamber that provides a forum for business executives under the age of 40 to network, participate in professional development opportunities, learn about and discuss area business and community issues, gain exposure in the marketplace, and get involved in making a difference for the betterment of the region.

By connecting diverse young professionals across the area, the Chamber creates a force that will both strengthen and grow the Greater Shreveport region, and help us attract more young professionals to live, work, play and stay in Northwest Louisiana.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT CONNECTION

The Greater Shreveport Chamber Business Development Connection (BDC) connects accomplished and emerging business leaders for the purpose of developing, sharing and perfecting their professional skills. The BDC provides networking and educational opportunities across the whole business community while emphasizing the strength of diversity within our multicultural economic climate. # Take a Look at DigiVision

ADVERTISEMENT

Locally owned and operated, DigiVision Billboards has created a new and innovative concept which makes digital billboard advertising more effective and affordable. The brainchild of Steven Keene and Bennett Rinaudo is now a reality with twelve new, high resolution, digital panels strategically located throughout the Shreveport-Bossier market.

Keene refers to their patent-pending concept as the "DigiVision Difference". Instead of paying for each single billboard panel by panel, DigiVision rotates your ads on every panel of every billboard, all day - every day. This linked programming increases the reach of your message exponentially. The cost of this concept is substantially less than the cost of conventional billboard advertising.

"Our panels are the newest and highest resolution in the market. According to our national manufacturer, DigiVision is the fastest growing, 100% digital, outdoor company in the United States," says Keene.

What makes digital panels more effective? Built with brilliant LED panels and operating from proprietary software, digital offers illumination and an expanded color range. Unlike the stagnant conventional billboards, ads on digital panels are rotated every few seconds. As a result, they are much more appealing to most viewers.

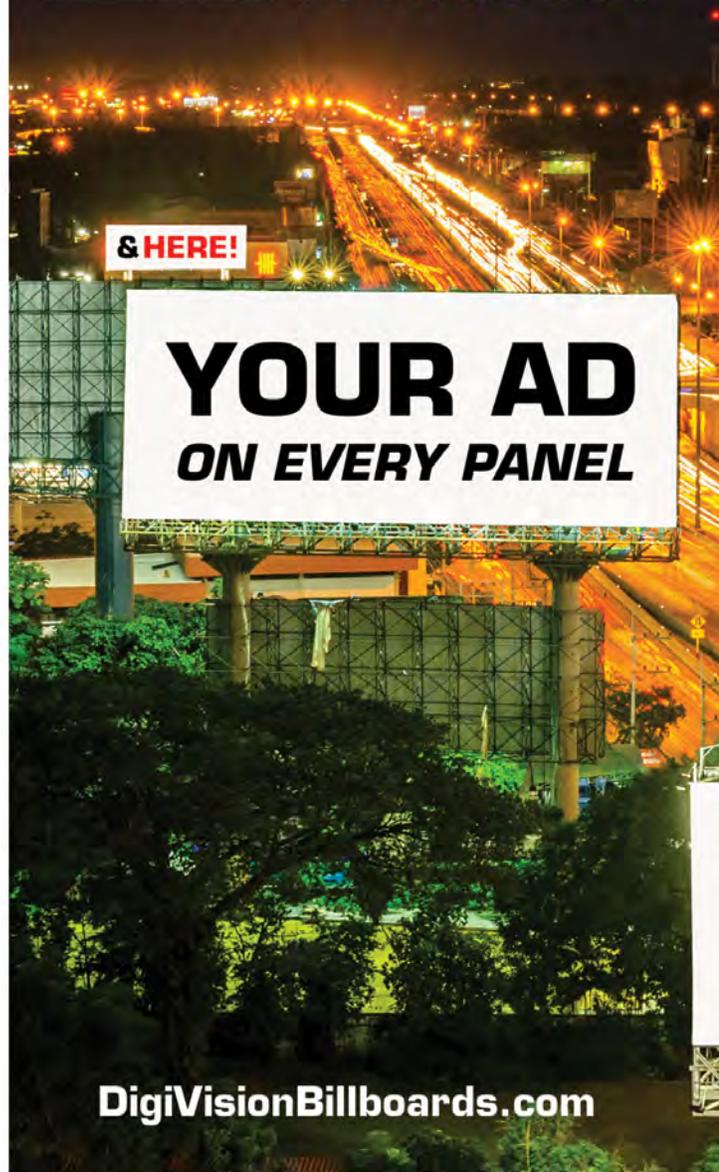

They also offer a lot of new value for advertisers.

- Digital billboards aren't "tuned out" after the first look. They catch attention and keep it.
- They have a natural appeal to the technology-friendly consumer.
- For advertisers, the easy and very minor cost of changing ads make them timely and useful for very specific or time-sensitive promotional campaigns.

For example, the printing and production cost of a traditional billboard would prevent most businesses from displaying products/services with short-term sales pricing. However, this is not an issue with digital billboards. Ad changes are fast and easy. This makes digital billboards an excellent medium for almost any type of marketing campaign.

Now, the benefit of each brilliant digital panel has been multiplied into a digital network and is a tremendous new marketing option for advertisers in Shreveport-Bossier.

Well known local marketing professional, Rinaudo stated, "We know Shreveport-Bossier and we know marketing. Contact us to design an effective marketing campaign, from concept to graphic design to street view in a matter of days!"

DigiVisionBillboards.com
