FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Green thumb bandit sought in theft of plants

Shreveport Police investigators are seeking to identify a man who was captured on video surveillance stealing multiple plants from a local business last month.

Back on April 24, 2019, Shreveport Police patrol officers were called to the 400 block of Texas Street relative to a plant theft. The suspect is seen entering the business and after a few moments, makes off with several plants taken from the front foyer of the business.

Investigators are hopeful the release of the video will assist in identifying and apprehending the man who is described as a black male, approximately five feet ten inches tall to six feet tall and weighing approximately 130-140 pounds. At the time of the theft, the suspect was wearing blue athletic shoes, a baseball cap, and dark pants that appeared too large. Persons with any information on the whereabouts of the suspect are asked to contact Crimestoppers at (318)673-7373 or visit www.P3tips.com.
